

...Until We Meet Again

Those Special Memories of you

Will always bring a smile

If only I could have you back

For just a little while

Then we could sit and talk again

Just like we used to do

You always meant so very much

And always will do too

The fact that you're no longer here

Will always cause me pain

But you're forever in my heart

Until we meet again

LEGACY OF LIFE

Sister Nicole Stansbury was born May 15, 1974 to Lamont W. Stansbury of Peekskill and Linda Stansbury of White Plains, New York.

Nicole attended White Plains Public Schools and graduated from White Plains High School. She also received her Bachelor’s and Master’s Degrees from Fordham University.

Nicole was employed by the White Plains Youth Bureau as camp director for the Bits N Pieces Program, Instructor for the Saturday Academy Program and promoted to the Education Director of the Saturday Academy Program.

After the Youth Bureau, Nicole became the Director of Youth & Community Services at the YWCA. She was a teacher, mentor, grant writer and dance & team mom. Nicole was an active member of Greater Centennial AME Zion Church in Mount Vernon, New York.

On March 4, 2009, Nicole gave birth to Jayden S. Hairston. She was a loving and caring mother to her “heartbeats”, Jayden and Naseem.

On Thursday, October 8, 2020 at Westchester Medical Center, Nicole was called peacefully home.

Nicole is survived by her mother, Linda of White Plains; son, Jayden of Elmsford; brother, Lamont Jr. of White Plains; nephews, Lamont of Ardsley and Naseem of Elmsford; uncles, Olney (Mary) Reynolds, Jr. of White Plains and Eric Reynolds of Kentucky; an aunt, Wanda Reynolds of White Plains; Jayden’s father, Jonathan Hairston of Yonkers and a host of family and friends. Nicole was predeceased by her father, Lamont W. Stansbury.

Lovingly submitted, The Family
