OBITUARY

Deaconess Daisy Bowens was born on March 19, 1930, in Willacoochee, Georgia, to Lemon and Essie Mae Williams Smith. A longtime resident of Greenburgh, NY, she married Leroy Bowens. He predeceased her on May 5, 1985. She also worked as a Nurse's Technician at Hospitals in Yonkers, NY.

Deaconess Daisy Bowens has been a faithful member of Union Baptist Church for more than 50 years. She has worked for the building of the kingdom through her giving spirit and service as a dedicated servant in the following UBC ministries: Deaconess for more than 40 years, Home & Foreign Missions for more than 50 years, Food Service, UBC Church Clerk, and Sunday School teacher. On the local and national level, Deaconess Bowens gave of her time and talent to the Working Churches of Westchester County and Vicinity; Central Hudson Baptist Association; Empire Baptist Association; National Baptist Association; and the National Baptist World Alliance, to name a few. Affectionately known as Ms. Daisy, she could be seen walking the streets of Greenburgh and White Plains doing God's work in the community.

Deaconess Bowens' favorite scripture holds a special place in her heart:

"He replied, "Because you have so little faith, I tell you the truth, if you have faith as small as a mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there' and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you." (Matthew 17:20 NIV)

We Thank God that Deaconess Bowens has been a great example of faithfulness and dedication to Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior. The Lord has been and will always be her shepherd.

Deaconess Bowens was preceded in death by her parents, siblings & husband. She leaves to cherish her memory numerous generations of nieces & nephews, cousins, godchildren, friends, other relatives, and her Union Baptist Church family.

God's Garden

*God looked around his garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.*

*He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.*

*He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine."*

*It broke our hearts to lose you
But you did not go alone...
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.*
